The Best Restaurant in the World

Imagine eating tobacco-flavored ice cream or vanilla-flavored potatoes. That's not a joke, not if your name is Ferran Adria.

Ferran Adria is the chef at El Bulli, a restaurant in Spain. His restaurant has been named the best restaurant in the world. But you need a lot of luck to eat there. It's a small restaurant, with fewer than fifty seats. You have to make a reservation a long time in advance. Every year there are two million applications, and people come from around the world to eat there. Of course, the restaurant is always full!

The food at El Bulli is special. Adria prepares food with new flavors and unusual combinations. He is very serious about his work. He wants to make people think differently about food. He believes that a meal should be an experience, like a night at the theater. So every evening the menu is different.

People call Adria “the Picasso of the modern kitchen.” But others do not agree. They say that his food is bad for the health and his ways of cooking aren’t practical. And in fact, his restaurant does not make money. It’s only open for six months of the year! The rest of the time, Adria works in his workshop, planning new dishes. He wears a white coat, so he looks just like a scientist.

Adria thinks the restaurant will survive, but he would like to have a school there. He wants to teach students about the science of food. He also hopes to work with other chefs who want to learn his new way of preparing food.
